in this Amended Order, which amends and supersedes the Court’s prior Orders. Now, therefore, the Court finds and concludes as follows:

(a) The Plaintiffs in these adversary proceedings are the Debtors. The Defendants in this adversary proceeding are the Governmental Defendants and the Private Defendants, which are listed in the “Underlying Plaintiffs” column of each of the charts annexed hereto as Appendix III and Appendix IV, with such Appendices being made a part of and incorporated in this Order. The Defendants in this adversary proceeding are all plaintiffs in judicial, administrative, or other actions or proceedings that seek to hold the Debtors and/or the Related Parties, as identified in Appendix IV, liable in connection with claims and/or causes of action arising out of or otherwise related to the Debtors’ prescription opioid business.

(b) The Court has jurisdiction over this matter pursuant to 28 U.S.C. §§ 157(a)-(b) and 1334(b). This is a core proceeding pursuant to 28 U.S.C. § 157(b)(2).

(c) The Debtors have demonstrated that the continuation of the active litigation against them and the Related Parties, identified in Appendix III and Appendix IV, respectively, would result in irreparable harm to the Debtors and their reorganization.

(d) The representatives of the Raymond Sackler family and of the Mortimer Sackler family (collectively, the “Sackler Families”) agreed on the record at the October 11 Hearing to toll all applicable statutes of limitations and similar time limits on the commencement of Additional Actions against any member of the Sackler Families, and to treat as inoperative all deadlines (including deadlines for appeals) in any currently pending Related Party Claim against any member of the Sackler Families, for the duration of this preliminary injunction.

(e) Accordingly, this Court finds it appropriate to enter a preliminary injunction as provided herein pursuant to section § 105(a) of the Bankruptcy Code and Rule 7065 of the Bankruptcy Rules.

(f) The legal and factual bases set forth in the Complaint, the Motion, the Brief, other supporting papers, and at the Hearings establish just cause for the relief granted herein.

(g) Arizona, California, Colorado, Connecticut, Delaware, the District of Columbia, Hawaii, Idaho, Illinois, Iowa, Maine, Maryland, Massachusetts, Minnesota, New Hampshire, New Jersey, New York, Nevada, North Carolina, Oregon, Pennsylvania, Rhode Island, Vermont, Virginia, Washington, Wisconsin, the Ad Hoc Group of Non-Consenting States [Docket No. 296 of Case No. 19-23649] and the Multi-State Governmental Entities Group and each of its members³ (as listed on the October 30, 2019 Verified Statement pursuant to Bankruptcy Rule 2019 filed under Docket No. 409 of Case No. 19-23649) (collectively, the “Potential Opt-Out Parties”) have each consented and agreed to continue to abide by the terms of the Second Amended Order Pursuant To 11 U.S.C. § 105(a) Granting Motion For A Preliminary Injunction [Docket No. 105 of Adv. Pro. No. 19-08289] (the “November 6 Order”), without the need to have any order entered against them.

³ Based upon the record of the November 6 Hearing, the following members of the Multi-State Governmental Entities Group are not Potential Opt-Out Parties and are instead bound to the terms of the November 6 Order until April 8, 2020: (1) Bryant C. Dunaway, in his official capacity as the District Attorney General for the Thirteenth Judicial District, Tennessee; (2) Jennings H. Jones, in his official capacity as the District Attorney General for the Sixteenth Judicial District, Tennessee; (3) Robert J. Carter, in his official capacity as the District Attorney General for the Seventeenth Judicial District, Tennessee; (4) Brent A. Cooper, in his official capacity as the District Attorney General for the Twenty-Second Judicial District, Tennessee; and (5) Lisa S. Zavogiannis, in her official capacity as the District Attorney General for the Thirty-First Judicial District, Tennessee.

Based on these findings, it is hereby:

ORDERED, that the Governmental Defendants, other than those who are Potential Opt-Out Parties, and the Private Defendants are prohibited and enjoined from (i) the commencement or continuation of their active judicial, administrative, or other actions or proceedings against the Debtors and/or Related Parties that were or could have been commenced before the commencement of the case under this title against the Debtors and/or the Related Parties arising from or in any way relating to the Debtors' prescription opioid business, including the actions reflected in Appendix III and Appendix IV, as well as (ii) from commencing or continuing any other actions against the Debtors or Related Parties alleging substantially similar facts or causes of action as those alleged in actions reflected in Appendix III and Appendix IV, in each case through and including Wednesday, April 8, 2020. The preliminary injunction period may be extended by further order of the Court.

ORDERED, that each Potential Opt-Out Party may withdraw its consent on one of two dates—December 19, 2019 and February 21, 2020 (the “Opt-Out Dates”)—by filing with the Bankruptcy Court a notice (a “Withdrawal Notice”) in the form attached hereto as Appendix II.⁴ Each Potential Opt-Out Party filing a Withdrawal Notice must send a copy of the same to the Debtors' counsel at least two business days before such filing. If any Potential Opt-Out Party files a Withdrawal Notice on either Opt-Out Date, then, no later than three business days after such Opt-Out Date, counsel for the Debtors shall submit to the Court for immediate entry a new proposed order that, upon its entry, will terminate the voluntary compliance of and instead bind each Potential Opt-Out Party that timely filed and served a Withdrawal Notice to the same terms imposed on other parties by the November 6 Order from the applicable Opt-Out Date until April 8, 2020. For the avoidance of doubt, entry of the November 6 Order (which does not enjoin Potential Opt-Out Parties in light of their full voluntary compliance therewith) and entry of this order shall not impair any rights of Potential Opt-Out Parties to appeal any subsequent order entered in connection with a Withdrawal Notice as contemplated herein.

ORDERED, that the Debtors in these chapter 11 cases shall be subject to the Voluntary Injunction annexed hereto as Appendix I.

ORDERED, that the Debtors need not give security in connection with this injunctive relief.

ORDERED, that this Order shall be promptly filed in the Clerk's Office and entered into the record.

ORDERED, that the Debtors are authorized to take all steps necessary or appropriate to carry out this Order.

ORDERED, that nothing in this Order shall prevent the Debtors from seeking a further extension of the requested injunction.

ORDERED, that if, while the preliminary injunction provided for in this Order is effective, either (i) any inactive litigation currently pending against the Debtors or Related Parties becomes active, or (ii) any new action is commenced against the Debtors or Related Parties (in either case, an "Additional Action"), the Debtors may promptly serve the plaintiff or plaintiffs in such Additional Action ("Applicable Plaintiff") with a copy of the Complaint, the Motion, the Debtors' memorandum of law in support of the Motion, and this Order (the "Service Documents"). The Debtors shall file a notice of such service on the docket promptly after service. If the Applicable Plaintiff in such Additional Action does not file and serve an ORDERED, that all applicable statutes of limitations and similar time limits on the commencement of Additional Actions, and all deadlines (including deadlines for appeals) in any currently pending Governmental Action or Related Party Claim (including as agreed on the record at the Hearing by the representatives of the Sackler Families), shall be tolled or otherwise inoperative for the duration of this preliminary injunction. This is without prejudice to any party's rights to assert that any currently pending Governmental Action or Related Party Claim is time barred, or that commencement of any Additional Action, or any other action taken by a party with respect to any Governmental Action or Related Party Claim after the entry of this Order would have been time barred or untimely had it been commenced or taken before the entry of this Order.

ORDERED, that nothing in this Order shall affect or abrogate the automatic stay as to the Debtors under section 362 of the Bankruptcy Code.

ORDERED, that this Court shall retain jurisdiction to hear and determine all matters arising from or related to the implementation, interpretation, or enforcement of this Order.
